Instructor

Systematic Theology (3)

6:15 p.m. Bishop F. Josephus Johnson II

This semesters study will center on the Doctrine of Angels. Our purpose is to conduct a theological survey of the Bible's teaching on the two kinds of angels (faithful and evil), to recognize the fact, origin, character and divisions of angelic beings. We will also conduct a survey of events compromising last things of biblical prophecy. Finally, we will begin to recognize the dealings of God with Israel through an understanding of her holy buildings.

2 Kings

6:15 p.m. Min. Chuck Gills

God's people were never meant to blend in. Instead, we're called to stand out from the crowd and become a beacon of hope. But nothing dims our light more than conformity, when voices that once proclaimed truth begin to quietly yield to a noisy world. Based on the books of 2 Kings and 2 Chronicles, this survey offers an eye-opening look at the high price of conformity and shares how we can stay distinct from our surroundings.

Acts

7:15 p.m. Rev. Dr. Gregory Clark

The Great Commission to go and make disciples of all people groups is a command for every true follower of Christ, not just for those who have the gift of evangelism. God wants every disciple to be a dynamic witness for Him. This is the Big Idea that runs throughout the first twelve chapters of the Book of Acts. Peter was just a fisherman, untrained in the fine details of theology, yet the Holy Spirit used him in dynamic ways to bring many people to a saving faith in Jesus as the Messiah. This class will take you verse by verse through the exciting events of Acts 1-12. You will discover how to ignite your own church and community with the power of the Holy Spirit. You will be empowered to spread the good news boldly as the Holy Spirit leads you.

Johnson Leadership Institute

7:15 p.m. Bishop F. Josephus Johnson II

Our focus will be on The Dark Night of the Soul by Dr. Gerald May. This book will give you an appreciation of what it means historically and, more important, what it might mean in your own life. The dark night is a profoundly good thing. It is an ongoing spiritual process in which we are liberated from attachments and compulsions and empowered to live and love more freely. The dark night is nothing other than a story of a love affair: a romance between God and the human soul that liberates us to love one another. The will be an exciting journey!
